Here is our list in no particular order:

1. Teach English Online

Earn between R180 – R300 per hour teaching English online to young students in China via VIPkid .

Tutoring online is great way to get started making some side money and you will be surprised how appreciative people are that you are willing to teach them.

2. Affiliate Marketing

Refer website visitors to buy products online and earn a commission on each sale. This actually how we make money on our website.

3. Building a Niche Website

Building Niche websites is the best side hustle because of the unlimited upside potential. This is the side hustle that we recommend the most to our readers we have even created a online course to help people get started with their first niche website click here to find out more.

4. Airbnb

If you have an extra room in your house, you can earn money renting it out to visitors on Airbnb this was easier to set up than I thought. It is a pretty cool way to make money and meet interesting people from around the world at the same time. I even know some people who don't have a spare room but they just go and stay with friends when their place gets booked on Airbnb.

5. Driving

If you are free mornings, nights, or weekends, you can earn extra cash driving your fellow citizens around.

Sign up with Uber to get started

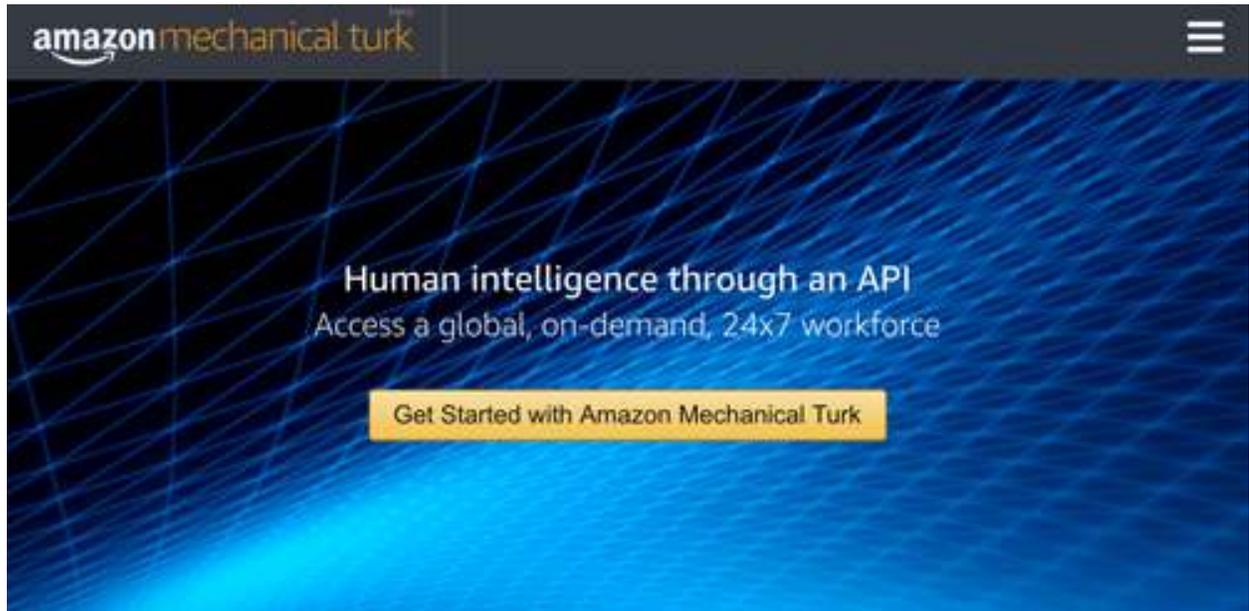

One cool "Tip" : Uber offers "Destination Mode", which basically allows you to earn money on your regular morning and evening commute by telling the app which direction you're headed and only accept riders along your route.

6. Delivery Service

With UberEATS you can earn money on your own schedule delivering take-out orders in your own town.

The cool part about this is you don't have to worry about passengers in your car and you don't have to keep it super clean like you do for Uber.

7. Online Micro Jobs Mechanical Turk

Micro jobs won't make you rich but it's a cool way to make a little bit extra on the side. These jobs are really easy you could do them while you watch TV and they don't take very long some are only 3min long.

8. Blogging

Blogging is hard work to get going but can be a fun outlet to practice your writing and build an audience around a particular idea.
